It is settled for us, Practically, we had as well fe troubled about the kind of government the caprices of mutations of fortune might turn out for Spain. We have no voice in the selection of caudidates and can only record the decrees of our northern rulers. For many years to come, we will be helplemly tied to the ear of northern domination in politica!

But we have some rights left of accorded to us by our conquerors, and smong them is that of regulating our own affairs. We need good government at home. Every body sees that. We have writted and body sees that.
